Are you an F-1 student? You will need to provide proof of funding in order to get your I-20. Proof of funding is a way a student shows they have sufficient funds (usually via a recent bank statement) to live and study full-time in the US for up to one academic year. This is different from the cost of attendance OR a statement of account. The proof of funding amount will not be an amount that is billed to you and is solely for immigration purposes. To find out more about proof of finances for immigration purposes, visit www.intostudy.com/en/osu/costs

On-campus jobs: As an international student at OSU, you can work up to 20 hours per week in one of the many on-campus jobs in the dining halls, sports facilities, Memorial Union Building and more. Students in Oregon receive at or above minimum wage (approx. $13-$16/hour) and typically earn $10,000-$16,000 per calendar year. This is a great way to learn valuable employment skills and reduce tuition costs.

All scholarships are subject to change. Scholarship awards may be lower in value than those published here. Scholarship values presented here are based on achieving the highest award available. Scholarships are subject to limited availability, deadlines and other terms and conditions. Please check with your INTO regional office or refer to your scholarship letter for more details. Student on government scholarships or sponsored by an external entity may not be eligible for some of these scholarships.

¹ Program group relates to the initial program enrolled to qualify for this scholarship.
² Net tuition is an estimate based on the highest scholarship award applied to the first year of a student's tuition or upon progression.
³ Based on graduate non-business/MBA programs.
⁴ Based on undergraduate tuition.
