ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL SUPPORT

JUMP START PROGRAM: This program provides individualized support to help you land a job on-campus before you leave your home country. International students can work part-time while taking classes and full-time during break periods. In 2024, 100% of students that participated in Jump Start were successful in securing a position.

FREE ROOM AND MEALS: After your first year as a student, you can apply to be a Resident Assistant (RA) for on-campus living. RAs receive an annual stipend, and their housing and meal plans are completely covered.

PAID INTERNSHIPS: International students are eligible for off-campus paid internships under the Curricular Practical Training program.
