Are you an F-1 student? You will need to provide proof of funding in order to get your I-20. Proof of funding is a way a student shows they have sufficient funds (usually via a recent bank statement) to live and study full-time in the US for up to one academic year. This is different from the cost of attendance OR a statement of account. The proof of funding amount will not be an amount that is billed to you and is solely for immigration purposes. To find out more about proof of finances for immigration purposes, visit www.intostudy.com/en/mason/costs

Note: Graduate direct admission tuition and fees may vary depending on academic program.
* Graduate and undergraduate direct living expenses are an estimate for off-campus housing and meals, Undergraduate International Year One is based on living on campus.
† 3 semesters assumed to be fall/spring/summer. Prices may differ depending on other combinations of semesters.
