"My pathway program was a good first step into the UK. It taught me how to adapt in a foreign environment. The way the course was structured helped me to shape a routine for progressing with my work – and to realize which areas were my biggest strengths."

Sheng Yang, Malaysia

Graduate Geotechnical Engineer at Royal HaskoningDHV

- International Foundation, Newcastle University International Study Centre
- MEng (Hons) Civil Engineering, Newcastle University

"One of the most remarkable aspects of Oregon State University is the quality of its instructors. They are among the best, bringing a wealth of experience and expertise to the classroom. Their dedication to teaching has truly enriched my learning journey. I am grateful for the academic environment, the supportive community and the invaluable experiences I've gained."

Jaskaran, India

- BS Computer Science, Oregon State University

Why study in the US?

US universities offer internationally recognized degrees, with an outstanding reputation for research.

High career investment returns

Shorter programs reduce overall spending, while also offering strong industry connections, networking, co-ops and internships. Optional practical training (OPT) allows students to work for one year after graduation, or three years with the STEM OPT extension.

A world-class student experience

Students in the US can explore major metropolises, historic landmarks, a buzzing food scene, world-famous national parks and 26 UNESCO world heritage sites. Plus, the US campus experience is unmatched.

Scholarships for talented students

Student success is our priority. We offer a range of scholarships for eligible students across the globe – making world-class education more accessible.

We also work closely with our partner universities, who offer a range of progression scholarships[1]. From merit-based awards to automatic discounts, students may be eligible for reduced tuition fee costs when they continue to their degree.

Up to £10,000,000
awarded annually[2]

"Receiving a scholarship not only helped me financially, but also psychologically. It's like a reward for studying hard and it can be a motivation and encouragement. I was very excited and pleased that I was chosen!"

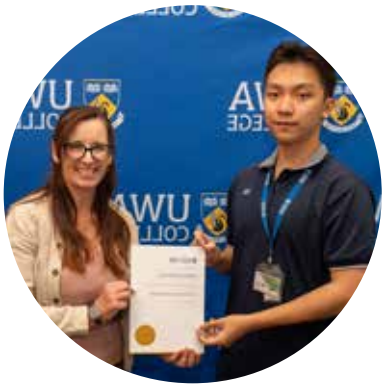

Ying Ru, Taiwan, China

- International Foundation, University of Exeter International Study Centre
- BSc (Hons) Psychology, University of Exeter

"It is an honor to have received the UWA College Success Scholarship. The scholarship came as a big support toward my degree in terms of financial incentive for me to continue to grow as a person and try my best in every class."

Minh Hoang, Vietnam

- UWA Foundation Program, UWA College
- Bachelor of Engineering (Hons), The University of Western Australia

1 Scholarship options vary by university and availability. Please see individual university websites for more details.
